OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

February 10, 1977

Admiral Stanfield Turner
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan and Pat:

Ann and I are delighted with Stan's appointment as the Director of the C.I.A. It must be reassuring to the Nation to have you in what has been a troubled agency.

STAT spent the night with us on the way to the Florida Keys. They both had much information about mutual friends, the world of writers and the world in general.

Ann and I will be in Oxford this Spring at the invitation of my old laboratory there.

We hope the shock of leaving the beauty of your home in Naples will be more than offset by the great opportunities for service in your new position.

Sincerely,

Robert Q. Marston
President
